Diversity eARTh is an truly unique experience that brings together a variety of intensely talented artists and authors.

This evening will be particularly special by having on site four amazing authors for readings and book signings. This while you will be experiencing breathtaking oils, watercolors, venetian plaster, photography and sculptures from award winning artists, blacksmiths and sculptors.

Authors Darryl Bollinger, Marcia Gaddis, Donna Meredith and Jeffrey Small will all be present to share their latest literature creations.

Food and cocktails will complement the evening.
